

Yankees Will Have New York All to Themselves When Baseball Pennant Races Are Started on April 13

GIANTS WILL OPEN IN PHILLIES' PARK

Dodgers to Start Season at Boston, According to League Schedule.

FIRST SUNDAY INAUGURAL

Brooklyn Will Celebrate It on April 17—Other Baseball News.

By DANIEL.

According to the National League schedule, published this morning, the opening day of the season—Wednesday, April 13—will find the Yankees in Philadelphia, the Dodgers in Boston, the Pirates in Cincinnati and the Cardinals in Chicago. The Yankees therefore will have New York all to themselves on that first game at the Polo Grounds on April 21, with the Phillies as their opponents, while the Dodgers will inaugurate the season in Flatbush on Sunday, April 17, their first game being against the Braves of Boston. The Yankees will play each of the three local major league clubs an opening day of its own and incidentally will give baseball in this section the first Sunday inaugural in the history of the National League. After their Sunday start at Ebbets Field the Dodgers will run down to Philadelphia for a three game series and will return to their headquarters on April 21. The Giants have been allotted twelve Saturdays, an equal number of Sundays and two holidays at the Polo Grounds. They will be seen here on Memorial Day and Labor Day, playing two games with the Phillies on May 30 and two with the Braves on September 5. The Yankees will play at the Harlem park on July 4, but as the Giants will be over in Chicago that day the American Leaguers will have no monopoly on local patronage.

Giants Treated Well.

The schedule treats the Giants rather well. They will have thirteen Saturdays, five Sundays and two holidays abroad, so that they are down for a total of forty-nine "big days." In addition to Independence Day in Flatbush they have drawn Patriots Day in Boston, which means morning and afternoon games at Braves Field on Tuesday, April 19.

Brooklyn leads the league in drawing "big days." It will have more club days at home than any other club in the major leagues, with a total of eighteen Saturdays and two holidays at Ebbets Field and thirteen Saturdays, five Sundays and one holiday on the road. It will spend Memorial Day at Boston, Chicago gets five "big days," Cincinnati and St. Louis forty-nine each, Boston and Pittsburgh forty-three apiece and Philadelphia only forty.

The schedule shows only three conflicting dates, all in Chicago. They are May 1, June 25 and September 11, but all three are Sundays and there will be no games on any of them. The club owners will make three trips into the West and the Western division will make three trips into this section of the league. The Giants' first Western trip will be started on June 2 at Pittsburgh, where they will go from Philadelphia without losing a day. Brooklyn will open its first Western trip on June 3 at Chicago, and will come there from Boston, with June 2 set down for travelling.

Yankees Won't Tell.

Several Yankees have sent in their signed contracts, but their names are being withheld. The owners of the club appear to have decided not to tell who has signed and who is holding out. The theory is that some men hold out for advertising purposes. However, the new system will find no favor with Yankee fans. Babe Ruth, Carl Mays and Walter Schang are the only Yankees who have signed contracts, which were signed last spring for two years.

It looks as if Lefevre, the Fordham infielder who was released by the Giants to play for the New York Yankees, will play no more professional baseball. Lefevre wants more money than he has been offered, and neither the Giants nor San Antonio are inclined to meet his demands.

Johnny Evers will leave Troy and his traction troubles flat to-day and head for Chicago, where he will play for the Cubs before entering for Pasadena. Johnny is one major league manager whose presence talk will not mention the word pennant. He has been handed a sorry job.

Three Dodgers Sign.

The Brooklyn club yesterday received the signed contracts of Jimmy Johnston, Haberman C. Durham and John Dukes. Johnston writes that the injury to his leg suffered in the game at Pasadena has been healed. Durham is a right handed pitcher who has been South with the Dodgers twice. He was in the Jacksonville City League last season.

Dukes is a Brooklyn infielder and son of George Dukes, pitcher for the old Metropolitan in 1899. The youngster was a star in the Amateur League, which played in Prospect Park a few years ago, and comes with recommendations from Fred Jacklinton and "Dutch" Carter.

NORTH CAROLINA FIRST TO PROTECT BASEBALL

RALPH, N. C., Feb. 8.—The bill defining bribery in connection with professional baseball became law to-day, when it was signed by the State Senate. It provides for sentences not to exceed five years' imprisonment for persons convicted of having offered or accepted bribes in connection with baseball games.

North Carolina is the first State to pass this law. Similar measures are before the Legislatures of New York, Ohio, Minnesota, Oklahoma, Massachusetts, Illinois, California and Pennsylvania.

TIGER FIGHTER IS FREE.

RAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 8.—A police judge to-day ordered the charges of robbery against Carl (Babe) Holting, former pitcher of the Oakland club, and under contract to the Detroit Americans. The complaining witness refused to prosecute. Holting was accused of entering an apartment and stealing $20 in currency and clothing valued at $20.

BRAYERS GET MARCHING ORDERS.

BOSTON, Feb. 8.—The pitchers and catchers of the Boston Nationals today were "marched" out short their off-season diversions and made ready to start for Galveston. They mean will be ten days longer than that of the rest of the team. Fred Mitchell having refused to send a battery man to Galveston at advance of the other players.

A bargain in bond was Auto Buick.
